Audition Requirements

Students who wish to perform with GMYS should be able to read music; wind, percussion, and brass players should have been playing their chosen instrument for at least one year. The musician should audition with a polished piece, a scale of their choosing, and should expect to sight-read. String players who wish to audition for advanced placement should prepare a 3-octave scale with at least 2 sharps or flats. Auditions last 10 minutes; practice rooms are available.
